

High School Camps

Join the Catholic Youth Organization for an exciting summer! Trek through the mountains, sail or paddle the Sound, or reach new heights at Camp Hamilton. Be accepted for who you are, make new friends, challenge yourself, and deepen your faith in one of our exclusive high school programs.

Adventure Camp

Amidst the rugged setting of Camp Hamilton, participate in an exciting and challenging experience designed specifically for high school. Enjoy all that camp has to offer: swimming, boating, archery, rock climbing, horseback riding, high ropes, hiking, crafts, sundown and mystic overnight adventures! You help choose wake up, bed time, meal times, activities, and themes as a community. You'll form new friends, learn to work together and grow in faith through prayer experiences and the sacraments.

Leadership Opportunity:

Counselor -in -Training Program (grades 10-12)

A selective 3 week program that challenges you to sharpen your leadership skills. Spend a week at camp, then help plan and run camp programs, learn how to mediate conflict, and gain increasing responsibility while assisting CYO staff at Camp Don Bosco.

Sail, Kayak, or Canoe the South Sound

Live an adventure with new friends exploring the many islands, shores, and some of our favorite overnight sites of the beautiful South Puget Sound. Whether you prefer paddling or wind power, we've got a trip for you! Take a kayak, the Big Canoe, or one of our sail boats to share laughter and faith in this small community. Enhance your camping and water skills, as you spend a week making memories that will last a lifetime! Intermediate swimming skills required for water trips (swim 100 yds, tread water for 1 min).

Hike and Raft

Adventure begins in the beautiful backcountry of the Cascade Mountains. Learn to rely on each other and deepen your faith as you hike through God's country and camp out under the stars. End your week with heart -pounding thrills in a fun-filled white water rafting trip led by an experienced river guide.
