

Washington Association for Middle Level Education

Annual Conference

Friday, October 14 and Saturday, October 15

Join us in Auburn for...

Soaring Above the Flying Monkeys: Engaging the 21st Century Learner

Keynote Speaker: Michael Gurian

Boys and girls learn in different ways and Michael Gurian is a pioneer of using neuro-biology and brain science to develop instructional strategies that increase student engagement and learning.

Michael is also the co-founder of the Gurian Institute, a research-driven, science-based, and strategies-focused provider of professional development that increases student achievement, teacher effectiveness and parent involvement.

Gurian is the bestselling author of 25 books, including: Boys and Girls Learn Differently: Action Guide for Teachers, The Minds of Boys: Saving Our Sons From Falling Behind in School and Life, and The Wonder of Girls

Breakout sessions from local and national experts on:

- Strategies for Engaging Young Adolescent Learners
- Adolescent Brain Research
- 21st Century Skills (not just technology!)
- Response to Intervention/Closing Opportunity Gaps
- Using Formative Assessment to Inform Instruction
- Content specific sessions on math, social studies, language arts and science
- Common Core Standards... and much, much more!

Conference Registration Pricing

WAMLE Member	$150
Non-Member	$175
Full Time College Student	$50
Team Members (4+)	$113 each
Team Non-Members (4+)	$132 each

REGISTER TODAY!

For more information and registration materials,
please visit our website at www.wamle.com