

Faith and the Abolition of the Death Penalty

Charting a New Course

Sunday, October 2, 2011

2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

St. Andrew Lutheran Church

2650 148th Avenue SE, Bellevue

Featuring

Juan Melendez

Juan spent nearly 18 years on Florida's death row for a crime he did not commit. In January 2002, he became the 99th death row inmate to be exonerated and released since 1973. His case highlights persistent, pervasive problems in our death penalty system.

Panel Discussion

Panel members include a family member of a murder victim and a local religious leader

Learn about a growing movement to end the death penalty in Washington State

Sponsored by

- Archdiocese of Seattle
- Faith Action Network
- Church Council of Greater Seattle
- Washington State Catholic Conference