

You are invited to attend, share, learn and earn free clock hours at the Dual Language Immersion Forum

hosted by Holy Family Parish School @
9615 20th Ave, SW
Seattle, WA 98106

Saturday, December 3, 2011
8:00 am - 3:00 pm

PURPOSE: To share teaching strategies and lessons learned around dual language immersion programs.

- ❖ School Administrators from Seattle Public Schools, Karen Kodama, and Highline Public Schools, Bernard Koontz, will be sharing their schools' programs with regards to models, training, professional development and materials.
- ❖ Teachers are invited to discuss language immersion instruction strategies and successes.
- ❖ Guest speaker: Eva González-Abad, Education Advisor for Spain.
- ❖ Free clock hours will be provided by OSPI.
- ❖ Breakfast and ethnic lunch will be hosted by Holy Family School.
- ❖ Afternoon session will be open to the public. Parents will have the opportunity to ask panel experienced questions concerning their programs.
- ❖ For questions, please contact Frank Cantwell at principal@hfseattle.org or 206-767-6640.

Register at: <http://tinyurl.com/Dec3DualLanguage>

