2012 National Blue Ribbon Schools Applications Available

The wait is over! The U.S. Department of Education has published the application and standards for the 2012 National Blue Ribbon Schools Program.

The private school application packet is now available on CAPE's Web site. The program includes some new guidance and several revisions to the essay questions, so be sure to read the packet and guidance carefully.

Best of success with the application process!

Social Networking Comes to CAPE

Become a fan of our new Facebook page by using the link below and then clicking the page's "Like" button (under the word "Council" at the top). While you're at it, why not follow our tweets on Twitter (there's no faster way to stay on top of private school news) and then join the over 38,000 people who have viewed our videos on YouTube! Also, please help us spread the word that private schools are good for students, families, and America by commenting on, liking, linking to, and sharing our posts.

Private Education: Good for Students, Good for Families, Good for America
