Camp Director Job Opening (2 positions)

The Catholic Youth Organization's Camp Services is actively seeking two seasonal Camp Directors. The directors will be responsible for delivering the mission of evangelization and fostering the growth of Catholic faith through experiential and adventure education. Each position will serve as the onsite director overseeing daily operations at one of CYO's two resident summer camps (Camp Don Bosco and Camp Hamilton) from mid June until the end of August. During the offseason the director will be required to attend monthly meetings and assist in planning and hiring for the camp. This position is seasonal with the ability to extend multiple seasons. Salary is $7,000-$10,000 DOE, plus room and board during the summer.

The minimum qualifications for the position include a bachelor's degree, previous experience working with youth, CPR and First Aid certifications, and a passion for their Catholic faith. All interested applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to cyo@seattlearch.org.

Day Camp Director Job Opening

The Catholic Youth Organization's Camp Services is actively seeking a Day Camp Director. The director will be responsible for delivering the mission of evangelization and fostering the growth of Catholic faith through vibrant day camp programs for youth grades 1-8. This person will serve as the onsite day camp director under the guidance of the seasonal camp director and oversee daily operations of the CYO Day Camp program. This will occur from mid June until the end of August. During the offseason the director will be required to some monthly meetings and assist in planning and hiring for the camp. Salary is $3,000-$5,000 DOE, plus room and board during the summer.

The minimum qualifications for the position include a bachelor's degree (preferred), previous experience working with youth, CPR and First Aid certifications, and a passion for their Catholic faith. All interested applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to cyo@seattlearch.org.