Rediscover Lent (Book) Kelly, Matthew, St. Anthony Messenger Press, 2012. From the author of the best-seller "Rediscover Catholicism" comes an inspiring way to rediscover Lent. Here, readers find a brief citation from a daily lectionary reading, a reflection on the beauty and importance of the Catholic faith and practice, thought-provoking questions for meditation, and a brief prayer. A companion for individual reading or for group study. (S,A)

A Lenten Journey with Father Michael Himes

(DVD, 77 min.) Himes, Fr. Michael, St. Anthony Messenger Press and Franciscan Communications, 2006. Father Michael Himes helps us reflect on our baptismal commitment, drawing insights from the Lenten Sunday readings, particularly the stories of water, light and life from John's Gospel. Focusing on the heart of the Lenten message, these programs are ideal for use with adults preparing for Baptism, prayer groups and those engaged in ongoing faith formation. Program 1. What is Temptation, Really? -- Program 2. Danger and Desire -- Program 3. God Sees Into the Heart -- Program 4. Endless Possibilities. (A)

Praying Lent: Renewing Our Lives on the Lenten Journey (Book) Alexander, Andy, Loyola Press, 2009.

An introduction to Lenten prayer as a path to spiritual renewal. This book reminds the reader that if we focus too much on what we give up we may miss the message of what God wants to give us during this grace-filled time. Provides readers with a rich, full, and transformative Lenten prayer experience, one in which hearts, minds, and lives are truly renewed as Lent takes on a far deeper and more meaningful purpose. (A)

The King, Crucified and Risen: Meditations on the Passion and Glory of Christ (Book) Groeschel,

Benedict J., Charis Books, 2002. In the season of Lent, we undertake spiritual disciplines to remind us of our participation in the death and resurrection of Christ. Father Benedict Groeschel helps us to embrace the mystery of the cross as a fundamental truth and reality of our faith. Against the backdrop of Scripture and the writings of the ancient fathers of the Church, for each day of the Lent and Easter seasons, this book offers thought-provoking reflections on Christ's agony, death, and glorious rising. (A)

Lent with the Saints: Daily Reflections (Book)

Friedman, Greg, St. Anthony Messenger Press, 2012. With insightful reflections, Fr. Greg Friedman draws on his love of the saints to offer daily inspiration during this season of repentance, forgiveness, and hope. Each day of Lent you can meditate on a Scripture reading, ponder reflections on this holy season, and connect and pray with some of the church's most beloved saints and holy people—Thomas Merton, Augustine, Francis, Clare, Damien of Molokai, Teresa of Calcutta, and Gianna Molla. (A)

The Little Way of Lent: Meditations in the Spirit of St. Therese of Lisieux (Book) Caster, Gary, Servant Books, 2010.

St. Thérèse emphasized the way we do things for God rather than the things we do for him. In that spirit, Lent is less about what we're offering and more about why. That insight transforms this season from one of narrow concern over what to give up into one of joyful freedom to enter into the love of Christ. The meditations in The Little Way of Lent—all colored by St. Thérèse's Little Way of Spiritual Childhood—will transform your Lenten observance and help you focus on God's redeeming love. (S,A)

Live Lent at Home: Daily Prayers and Activities for Families (Book) Shortal, Paige Byrne, Liguori Publications.

This day-by-day booklet for families is a perfect companion for the season of Lent. Each week begins with a Sunday Gospel reflection for parents and children to read together, followed by daily reflections, activities, and simple prayers for a meaningful, fruitful Lent. (A)

Seek First the Kingdom: Challenging the Culture by Living our Faith

(Book) Wuerl, Donald Cardinal, Our Sunday Visitor Pub., 2012. Cardinal Donald W. Wuerl lays out a solid foundation for understanding the roots of Catholic laity's participation in the public arena, providing the tools you need to become an insightful ambassador for the kingdom of God. The heart of Seek First the Kingdom is a masterful survey of the teachings of the Scriptures, theology, and tradition on citizenship in the Kingdom of God. (A)

Catholic and Cornered: Answers to Common Questions About Your Faith

(Book) Parker, Kenneth L., Liguori Publications, 2011. The purpose of this book is to help Catholics answer frequently asked questions and help navigate non-Catholics through misconceptions of the faith. These same questions often challenge Catholics who grew up in their faith. This book offers the questions they seek too. (S,A)

Living the Mass: How One Hour a Week Can Change Your Life

(Book) Grassi, Dominic, Loyola Press, 2011. Conveys how each part of the Mass relates to our baptismal call, closing the chasm between Sunday Mass and daily life. This newly revised edition takes into account the changes in the new Roman Missal, yet rather than isolating those texts or commenting on them, the authors have integrated the changes seamlessly into the book. This assimilation ensures that readers stay focused on the core message of the book—how the Mass as a whole changes us—rather than become sidetracked by the Missal's new texts. (S,A)
