

COACHING STRATEGIES TO TRANSFORM YOUR SCHOOL

This workshop aligns with the new evaluation criteria for principals (TPEP):

- Creating a Culture
- Improving Instruction
- Aligning Curriculum
- Managing Resources
- Engaging Communities
- Closing the Gap

Attend this workshop and learn about:

- What coaching is and why/when to use it
- Helping staff to reflect on their practice so that all students learn
- Conducting difficult conversations
- Using the power of deep listening, powerful questioning and effective feedback
- Creating a culture that promotes ongoing improvement within the school community
- Developing a plan for using coaching strategies in your ongoing work

Who should attend?

- Principals
- Assistant Principals
- Principal Interns
- Head and Director of Schools
- Instructional coaches

Workshop Dates

June 27 - June 29, 2012

or

August 7 - August 9, 2012

Registration Fee

$700

If you would like to attend the training, please complete the registration form available for download online at

<http://www.seattleu.edu/Workshops.aspx>

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

For more information about our program please visit us on the Web at:
www.seattleu.edu/coe/edadmin/PNP.aspx

For questions please contact:

Jo Ann Trautman

Project Director

Program for New Principals

Phone: 206-296-2632

trautmaj@seattleu.edu