Greetings!

There are a couple of opportunities in the month of October for liturgical musicians to gather in fellowship and further their formation in liturgical music ministry.

JAIME CORTEZ is a talented composer, arranger, and performer for Oregon Catholic Press. Jaime will be giving a day-long workshop in Spanish at St. Francis Cabrini in Lakewood for Hispanic Pastoral Musicians on Saturday, October 13th. co-sponsored by OCP and the Liturgy Office.

SING FREE NOW! is an all-day workshop that will be held at St. Anne in Seattle on Saturday, October 27th by Mark Bosnian, a voice teacher and singer/songwriter. sponsored by St. Anne Catholic Church.

JAIME CORTEZ

MÚSICA LITÚRGICA

SING FREE NOW!

Learn Mark Bosnian's three steps to singing with confidence.

Saturday, October 27, 2012
St. Anne Church, Seattle
8:30am - 4:00pm

This workshop hopes to give participants:

- an awareness of how nature has "wired" us to breathe and make sound;
- an understanding of how to use vocal mechanics to be in alignment with dynamics, emotion and artistry;
- the knowledge needed to use this understanding and awareness to be an intentional singer.

Information about coaching sessions will also be available.

To register for this workshop, email Paul Kramer, Pastoral Assistant for Music at St. Anne Church or call (206) 282-0223, ext. 106.

For more information about Mark Bosnian, visit his website.

Please take a moment and forward this email to any liturgical musicians you may know who may be interested in either of these workshops. Thank you!
