

The Dialogue for Justice is an Archdiocesan-wide initiative of the Washington State Catholic Conference, the Intercommunity Peace & Justice Center, and Catholic Community Services of Western Washington to strengthen and enhance Catholic advocacy in support of issues addressing the needs of poor people in our state.

Please join us for one of three upcoming Regional Convenings to help build a regional advocacy network and prepare for the 2013 Legislative Session:

Northwest Regional Advocacy Convening

Sacred Heart Parish, Bellingham
Thur., Nov. 8, 6:30–9:00 PM

King County Regional Advocacy Convening

St. James Cathedral, Seattle
Sat., Nov. 10, 9:30 AM–12:30 PM

Southwest Regional Advocacy Convening

St. Michael Parish, Olympia
Sat., Dec. 1, 9:30 AM–12:30 PM

Each Regional Convening will feature:

- Archbishop J. Peter Sartain, Welcome and Call to Advocacy (via video)
- 2013 Legislative Priority Issues Briefings
- Mobilization Briefings
- Parish & Group Advocacy Brainstorming, Plan Development and Commitments

To RSVP, email DialogueforJustice@ccsww.org or call Josephine Tamayo Murray at (206) 328-5701.
When you RSVP, please provide your name, which convening you wish to attend, and your email address, phone number and parish/organization.
Please RSVP by October 31.