

Mission Immersion for Catholic Educators

Teachers, catechists, and youth ministers play a key role in helping students to grow in Christ's love and experience the world beyond their borders. Through Maryknoll's Teacher Immersion Program, Catholic educators have the opportunity to find God in new and unexpected places, and to bring that experience back to their students.

2013 Program: Bolivia

Date: August 1st-12th

Projected Cost: $2,500

Cost includes travel and in-country expenses, such as flights, in-country transportation, lodging, and meals

For more information or to apply, contact:

Kevin Foy

Mission Promotion Coordinator

Email: kfoy@maryknoll.org

Phone: 1-888-444-8957 ext. 512

Sites: Cochabamba and La Paz

Program Includes:

- Immersion to Bolivian cultural and socio-political realities
- Experiences of daily life in typical Bolivian communities
- Encounters with youth and families
- Visits to local schools and programs serving children
- Encounters with Maryknoll programs and partner programs working to address education, economic, and health needs in the local community
- Visits to tourist and cultural sites
- Professional development from the Maryknoll Mission Education team
- Prayer and reflection in community with fellow educators
- Building relationships with people of different cultures
- Assistance in bringing this experience back to your students