

Holy Family Parish School in Kirkland is Hosting a Music Workshop for the Music/Drama/Classroom Teacher

March 22, 2013

9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Holy Family Parish School Music Room

Clock Hours Available

Light lunch included

This seminar is limited to 30 participants, and the cost is $100.00 per participant.

Teachers of all subjects including music are invited to spend a day with Janet Greene, MA, the Music and Movement specialist at Oak Grove and Monte Rio Schools in Northern California, and Director of the Orff Music School in Sebastopol. Janet offers Orff courses at Mendocino College, Sonoma State University, and the San Francisco Orff Course. Janet has shared her interest in Orff and integrated curriculum with teachers in South Africa, Thailand, Bhutan, and Bali.

Participants will:

- Experience Janet's expertise on developing skills through song and dance
- Join in playing and singing while using various Orff instruments
- Share classroom experiences with others
- Explore musical, movement, and dramatic skills

Margaret Swain, a representative of Orff instruments and music materials, from Mad Robin Music will be available with materials for you to purchase.

"The place where it (the Schulwerk) can be most effective and where there is the possibility of continuous and progressive work, and where its connections with other subjects can be explored, developed, and fully exploited..... is the school." (Carl Orff 1978, p. 245).
