

What is brain science teaching us about kids and young people? What does this mean for parents, schools and youth facing obstacles?

Join us on May 23 at United Way of King County's annual Breakfast. We'll share a Tom Douglas meal—and food for thought about what United Way is doing right now to support youth at crucial points in their development.

UNITED WAY ANNUAL BREAKFAST

Thursday, May 23, 2013

The historic Paramount Theatre

911 Pine Street, Seattle

Doors open: 7 a.m.

Program: 7:45 to 9 a.m.

Register

Featured speakers:

- Dr. Adriana Galván
Director and principal investigator at the Developmental Neuroscience Laboratory, professor in the Department of Psychology, and member of the Brain Research Institute, UCLA
- Megan Gibbard
Manager of King County's Youth and Young Adult Homelessness Project
- Fred Devereux
United Way board chair and AT&T west region president
- Matt Griffin
Incoming United Way campaign chair and Pine Street Group L.L.C. managing partner
- Jon Fine
United Way president and CEO

Tickets are $125 each or $1,250 for a table of 10. Space is limited; please register by Friday, May 10.

---

United Way's annual Breakfast is generously sponsored by:

Brettler Family
Foundation

Pricewaterhouse Coopers

alt="sponsor

block">

Support United Way events with a sponsorship.

---

Give | Share | Facebook | Twitter

You are receiving this message at travis.wals@seattlearch.org.
View United Way of King County's privacy policy, or unsubscribe.
If you have any questions about this message or United Way of King County, contact us at customerservice@uwkc.org or call 206-461-5005.

United Way of King County
720 Second Avenue • Seattle, WA 98104
©2013 United Way of King County. All rights reserved.

View this message in a browser.

nonprofit software