

SPU Summer Class

Gadgets and Gizmos: A Writing Camp for Teachers

3 credits or 30 clock hours

 WHO teachers grades 3-12

 WHEN August 19-23, 2013, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m daily

 WHERE Brandman University in the Harborstone Bank Building on Galaxy Drive in Lacey off the Marvin Road Exit

(modern, comfortable air-conditioned facility with up-to-date technology)

Common Core got you down? Come to Writing Camp and discover a light approach (suitable for students age 8-18) with a sterling success rate. Learn strategies, games, methods, and songs to spice up Nonfiction, Writing Devices, Revision, Narratives, and Poetry. Reach and Teach reluctant writers and entice the highly motivated, using binoculars, barbells, beads, socks, pipecleaners and other gadgets. Participants will do some writing of their own, and end the week with an armload of immediately useable classroom lessons. Wear clothes for painting and come prepared to move!

Instructor: Anne Mitchelson

Call if you have questions! 360-456-1825 or 360-464-7324

REGISTRATION FORM

Gadgets and Gizmos: A Writing Camp for Teachers

SEATTLE PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

August 19-23, 8:30a.m.-3:30p.m., at Brandman University in Lacey

3 Credits or 30 clock hours

Instructor: Anne Mitchelson

Name_____

Address_____

Phone Numbers_____

Place of Employment_____

Grade level presently teaching_____

Send the bottom half of this form, with a check for $225.00 made out to Anne Mitchelson, to the following address:

8014 61st Ave. NE
Olympia, WA 98516

You will register with SPU on the first day of class, and decide then whether to choose credit or clock hours.
Payment for the Class Handbook of worksheets may be made on the first day of class also.

QUESTIONS?

Call Anne at 360-456-1825 or 360-464-7324