

HIGH SCHOOL RELIGIOUS TEACHER IN-SERVICE

October 11, 2013

8:45 am - 3:00 pm

Isaac Orr Conference Center

Chancery, 910 Marion St., Seattle

Topic:

Common Core Implications for the Theology/Religion Classroom

Presenter: Maria D. S. Andrade Johnson

Maria Andrade-Johnson is the chair of the Religion Department at Santa Margarita High School in the Diocese of Orange, teaching Religion, Philosophy, and Theory of Knowledge. She is currently enrolled in M.A., Education in Catholic School Leadership at Loyola Marymount University, and is a fellow and teacher consultant for the UCI Writing Project. Maria received her M.Ed. in Education at National University.

Cost:

$20 per participant (school will be billed)
includes light morning refreshments and lunch
Please specify dietary needs with your registration.

RSVP:

ocff@seattlearch.org by October 4th
(late registrations may not be accepted)

OFFICE OF CATHOLIC FAITH FORMATION
ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE • 710 9th Ave • Seattle, WA 98104

