Does the thought of taking minutes conjure up feelings of fear and dread?

As a school leader, is it ever your responsibility to take minutes but you are unsure of how to do so properly? The best way to get past the fear of taking minutes is to learn to do them well and when you learn to do them well, your confidence will soar. As an added bonus, templates will be provided that you can take back and use in your own office and a “cheat sheet” that summarizes the information learned.

Advent Awakenings: Use a Seasonal Reflection to Build a Year of Spiritual Community Development
