

General Retreat Information

What to Bring: Each room is simply furnished and comes with sheets, towels and soap. You will need to bring your own shampoo and other toiletries, comfortable walking clothes, a notebook & pen, and anything else that will help you feel comfortable and at home in the retreat center. A telephone and computer with internet access are available for use at the registration desk at the front door.

Meals: Our meals are served buffet style in our dining room overlooking Puget Sound. The retreat will begin on the first evening of your retreat with registration from 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM (dinner at 6:00 PM) and end at 11:30 AM on the last day of your retreat. Special dietary needs can be met if you only make your needs known to our kitchen staff.

The staff of the Retreat Center are eager to welcome you. When you come to visit us, you will find good food, a comfortable room, extraordinary views and people who are ready to help you grow in your love of our Lord.

LIVING FOR OTHERS

The Challenge & Promise of Peace

AUGUST 11-14, 2014

MARYANN CUSIMANO LOVE, PH.D.

This year's Living for Others retreat will explore the many dimensions of the Catholic understanding of peace:

- Catholic teaching on war and peace from Vatican II to the present
- Traditions of Nonviolence & Just War
- Building peace in war-torn areas
- Pope Francis and peace as a fundamental human right
- Spirituality of peace

Whether you are a Catholic school teacher, youth minister, or just wanting to grow in your faith, you won't want to miss this opportunity to find out how the Church's teaching on war and peace strives to meet the challenges in our world. You will meet people engaged in mission trips, hear youth reflect on the impact of immersion experience on their lives, and gain new insights on the call to be peacemakers from Pope Francis' The Joy of the Gospel. Attendance at this event qualifies for 12 Washington State Clock Hours for Catholic School Teachers.

Dr. Maryann Cusimano Love, Ph.D., is Associate Professor of International Relations at Catholic University of America. She serves the U.S. Department of State as an advisor, teaches courses at the Pentagon and is on the U.S. Catholic Bishops' International Justice and Peace Committee. The author of numerous books and articles on international relations, she also serves on the Advisory Board for the Catholic Peacebuilding Network and on the board of the Jesuit Refugee Services. She and her husband Richard have three young children, Maria, Ricky, and Ava.

Price: The retreat fee is $199 per person for a private single room. Married couples or friends of the same sex may share a room with one bed for $165 per person. Price includes all presentations, six meals and two nights in a comfortable room with private bath. Scholarships are available. If you need to cancel your retreat due to illness or other circumstances, please contact Helen Nguyen at (206) 748-7991. Retreat payments are non-refundable.
