BASIC CANTOR CERTIFICATION

FOR CANTORS SERVING ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISHES

The NPM Steering Committee for Cantors has developed this process to attain a Basic Cantor Certification (BCC) for members of the NPM as a means to recognize the achievement of fundamental skills expected of cantors.

The three components of the process:

I. Service Music

 - two responsorial psalms from the Examination Repertoire List available on the Liturgy Office website
 - a setting of the “Kyrie”
 - a setting of the “Lamb of God”

II. Sight Singing

The candidate will be asked to sing back three series of three pitches played on the piano.

III. Musical and Liturgical Knowledge

By written exam, the candidate will demonstrate familiarity with basic musical notation and with the Order of Mass.
