

Summer Research Experience for High School Teachers

Baylor University, Waco, Texas, July 6-17th, 2015, 9 AM- 4 PM
Application deadline: Dec 19th 2014- space is limited

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE OR RELATED CLASSES

- A ten day workshop focused on Green Chemistry and design of safer chemicals
- Lectures, field trips, hands-on activities, and research!
- Design experiments using Daphnia (water fleas) that you can use in your classroom
- Participation stipend of $1800 per participant, travel/per diem/lodging up to $1700 and clock hours from Pacific Education Institute (60 +)

HOW TO APPLY

- Visit www.ecy.wa.gov/GreenChemistry for an invitation to apply and a workshop application!
 - Email Saskia.vanBergen@ecy.wa.gov with any questions or concerns!
- SEE YOU IN THE LAB!!*

About Baylor and Waco, Texas

- 90 minutes from Dallas, 90 minutes from Austin
- Attractions include Lake Waco Wetlands, the Waco Mammoth Site, Baylor's Mayborn Museum, and the Perot Museum of Nature and Science in Dallas.