

Gathering for Life, Justice & Peace Ministry

Saturday, September 18, 2010

9:00 am to 12:00 pm

Isaac Orr Conference Center, The Chancery

(910 Marion • Seattle, WA 98104 )

Agenda

- ✚ Human Costs of Inequality
  - Ngozi Oleru and others from Immaculate Conception parish (Seattle)
  - Presentation will include excerpt of the documentary series, Unnatural Causes: Is Inequality Making Us Sick? The series concerns “our huge and alarming socio-economic and racial inequalities in health – and searches for their causes.”
  - Speakers will describe how they have used the documentary series to lead discussions in their parish.
- ✚ November Washington State Ballot Initiatives
  - Sr. Sharon Park, OP, Washington State Catholic Conference
- ✚ Advocacy Update
  - Justice for Immigrants Campaign and the DREAM Act
- ✚ Sharing of Parish Activities and Efforts, especially with the 2010-2011 Respect Life materials

Whether you are part of a Life, Justice and Peace Commission, a JustFaith group, or a Respect Life committee, this gathering is intended to support anyone involved in parish social ministry.

There is no cost for this gathering but please register by September 15th so we can make enough copies of handouts. To register, send an e-mail to ocff@seattlearch.org or call 800-950-4970. Fair trade coffee, as well as hot water, will be provided.