Religious Education Newsletter

November 9, 2015

Dear Catechetical Colleagues,

Our "Essential Concept" this week is Sacraments at the Service of Communion-Holy Orders and Matrimony. We are delighted that the focus of this week's newsletter also offers us an opportunity to introduce Sarah Bartel, Ph.D. to all of you. Sarah has recently joined OCFF as an interim consultant and shares with us the following message:

The truth, beauty, and dignity of God's plan for marriage and family is good news for the human heart, created in God's image for love. I am delighted to serve the Archdiocese of Seattle in promoting the Gospel of Marriage and Family as an interim Marriage and Family Life Consultant with the Office of Catholic Faith Formation. If you would like help choosing a good marriage preparation program, lining up videos or speakers for a marriage enrichment series, finding materials on marriage for RCIA or youth group, or fielding questions about Natural Family Planning (NFP), please do not hesitate to get in touch with me by contacting Joseph Tancioco at OCFF (ocff@seattlearch.org; 206-382-4593).

Making the transformative power of our Catholic theology of marriage accessible and impactful to the "man and woman in the pew" is my passion. I studied the theology of marriage and family at The Catholic University of America. I currently write a monthly column, "Your Marriage Matters," for Northwest Catholic Magazine, and you may also hear my "Marriage Minutes" on Sacred Heart Radio, AM 1050. I am available to speak to parishes and groups, as well.

An amazing resource I am really excited about promoting is the excellent 6-video series on marriage called "Beloved." These DVD's are produced in a documentary style with the same caliber of professionalism, profundity, and soul-stirring beauty that you find in Bishop Robert Barron's "Catholicism" series. The first three videos explain the theology and catechesis of marriage, while videos four through six treat life-skills and practices. "Beloved" is designed for marriage prep and marriage enrichment accompanied by a Leader's Guide and workbooks for engaged or married couples. However, I think that any of the first three videos would be an excellent resource for an RCIA, youth group, or high school religion class on marriage. This series is available through the Library Media Center. I've been reviewing some other high-quality marriage enrichment resources as well, so do get in touch if you are interested in promoting marriage in your parish! With statistics from our Archdiocese showing a dramatic decline in the number of Catholic marriages through recent decades, this is an urgent mission that I hope you can highlight in your ministry.

We are also looking forward to the Jubilee Year of Mercy that will soon begin on December 8th. We will be routinely highlighting events around the Archdiocese, resources and current news related to the Year of Mercy. Be sure to check this section often!

In Christ,

C4: Ignite Your Catholic Faith - What are Holy Orders?

Deacons, priests, bishops, archbishops, cardinals and the pope. How did these men get their start? How do you know when you're on the opposite end of that Divine call? Bishop Don shares his personal story and orders up some great info on the leaders who serve us. Based upon the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1536).

Sacraments 201: Matrimony (more questions answered)

BustedHalo.com's introduction to the Sacraments series continues when Fr. Steven Bell, CSP, answers more questions about getting married in the Catholic Church: Can we have a destination wedding? What kind of music can we use? What if we're already living together? What if we're divorced?

Resources from the LMC on The Sacraments at the Service of Communion

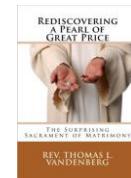

Beloved Marriage Preparation/Enrichment Series

(Augustine Institute, 12 sessions) explores the essential realities of marriage, dealing with the deepest spiritual, emotional, and practical aspects of what the sacrament means for those preparing to get married as well as those who yearn for a richer married life. Through an exploration of Scripture, Tradition, and Church teaching, God's plan for marriage will come alive.

Rediscovering a Pearl of Great Price: The Surprising Sacrament of Matrimony

(Fr. Thomas Vandenberg) What difference does the sacrament of matrimony make? How is it different from any other marriage? What makes it a pearl of great price, so valuable that the very health of the Catholic Church depends on it? The answers are not what you expect to hear. These and other issues are addressed in this timely book that breaks new ground on the significance of this sacred vocation. You will discover also how the two social sacraments of holy orders and matrimony are meant to work together to help bring healing to our church that is so divided over so many things today.

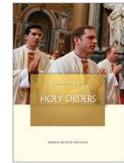

The Marriage God Wants for You: Why the Sacrament Makes All the Difference

(Cardinal Donald Wuerl) What is usually overlooked even by those married in the Church is that God intended marriage to be a sacrament. The Lord wants couples to rely on his promise to be present in their day-to-day lives, and he wants to give them the grace to live out a covenantal love that mirrors the love of the Trinity. Rather than simply a defense of marriage, this book presents the good news about sacramental marriage. Cardinal Donald Wuerl uses his years of pastoral experience and his gift of teaching to give hope and courage to both engaged couples and those married for many years and to anyone thinking about the meaning or vocation of marriage.

Holy Orders (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) This booklet seeks to present the deep teaching of the Church in regards to the Sacrament of Holy Orders. In just a few pages, the reader is treated to a reflection on the meaning and purpose of the sacrament, a reflection that serves as an ideal jumping-off point for further study. Perfect for catechists, men discerning a vocation to the priesthood or diaconate, or anyone interested in a simple yet in-depth look at this profound mystery, this volume offers readers a greater appreciation for the beauty of Holy Orders.

Priests: An Inside Look (John P. Mack) Rev. John Mack reflects upon his ministerial journey in light of the sacrament of Holy Orders and the Rite of Ordination. He describes the requirements, the opportunities, the work, the rewards, and the challenges of the priesthood. Vocation Series.
