

Bringing Theatre into the Classroom | BTiC

July 18-22, 2016

BTiC is an engaging, fun, five-day intensive summer workshop that will teach you ways to integrate drama into your entire curriculum.

Think of it as summer camp – only with better food and WAY better activities. Get all the tools you need to integrate art into your classroom on a daily basis. Seattle Children's Theatre, Seattle Repertory Theatre, Book-It Repertory Theatre and Pacific Northwest Ballet bring you the best summer workshop you'll ever take!

During the hands-on workshops offered throughout the week, you'll "try out" curriculum in a supportive environment with a professional Teaching Artist, then walk away with a resource notebook of detailed, easy-to-follow lesson plans. Clock hours and university credit are available.

After the summer intensive, you'll sign up for a follow-up consultation during the school year. A BTiC faculty member will travel to your school to work as a collaborator, coach or co-teacher, as you integrate lessons learned during the summer workshop into practical lesson plans. Priority for follow-up consultations is given to first time BTiC participants. BTiC alumni will be offered follow-up consultations on a space available basis.
