

memo --- June, 2016

New Principals and Principals to a New School

Executive Principals and neighboring principals be sure to contact the new principals in your area, welcome them, get them information and give a supportive ear or shoulder when necessary!!

Thanks, Karen

NEW TO ARCHDIOCESE PRINCIPAL LEADERSHIP

Assumption, Bellingham

Dan Anderson

Dan and his family are returning to the United States after serving in an International School in Korea for the past 4 years to serve at Assumption School. Dan was a principal in Santa Cruz, CA at Good Shepard Catholic School before going to Korea.

St. Mary Magdalen, Everett

Zack Cunningham

Zack has been serving as the vice principal at St. Mary Magdalen for the past two years and will now assume the principal position. He has experience in leading a "multitude" of fundraising campaigns at St. Mary Magdalen!

Holy Family, Lacey

Monica Davis

Monica has been teaching at Holy Family the past 4 years and will bring her experience of serving in 5 different schools as she followed her husband's military career. They are "settling" in the Lacey area and she will be serving as principal.

Our Lady of Fatima

Nicholas Ford

Nicholas has been teaching middle school at Fatima the past 3 years. He brings his experience of serving in Jesuit Volunteer Crops, in Tanzania for 2 years and Dean of Students for Gonzaga Primary School.

Holy Rosary, West Seattle

Anna Horton

Anna has been serving as an Assistant Principal in the Renton School District the past 3 years and was named "Assistant Principal of the Year" in 2009. She is an active member of St. James Cathedral and her daughter will begin preschool at Holy Rosary in the Fall.

St. Joseph, Vancouver

Joseph Manning

Joe has been serving as principal at Valley Catholic School, a private Catholic school in the Archdiocese of Portland for the past 5 years. He is returning to his hometown of Vancouver with his family.

St. Rose, Longview

Catherine Strader

Cathy has been teaching and doing her administrative credential work in the Archdiocese of Portland at Holy Redeemer Catholic School. She and her family will be relocating to the Longview area.

Immaculate Conception/Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Everett

Kathy Wartelle

Kathy completed her certification this past Spring and has been working at the school for the past 3 year sin the role of counselor and recent principal intern. She and her family have been part of the school and parish for several years.

Holy Family Bilingual Academy, Seattle

Larkin Temme

Larkin has been teaching at O'Dea High School and serving in an administrative role as Head for the Spanish Department. She is bilingual and been very involved as a parent supporter of Holy Family School.

Seattle Prep High School

Erin Luby

Erin comes to Seattle Prep from St. Ignatius College Prep in Chicago. Erin has served as an English teacher, Director of Student Activities, Dean of Students and Assistant Principal for Student Services, earning 3 degrees from Notre Dame.

Forest Ridge, Bellevue

Trudy Hall, interim

Trudy recently served as Head of Emma Willard, a 220 year old all-girl school in Troy, New York.

Archbishop Murphy High School

Alex Crane

Alex joined the staff of Archbishop Murphy High School as a math instructor in 2006. He has served as the Student Life Director and Vice Principal of Teacher Formation. He has been named Principal beginning the 2016 school year.

Steve Schmutz

Steve joined the staff at Archbishop Murphy High School in 2006 taught Social Studies and served as Dean of Students. He served one year as Principal of Eastside Catholic, and then returned to be Principal at Murphy. He will be serving as president beginning the 2016 school year.

Congratulations and thanks to those who achieved retirement or are embracing a new adventure!!

George Hofbauer, Matt Schambari, Sheila Kries, Carola Wittman, Maureen Reid, Bill Attbery, Lori Ordonez, Kimberlie Kilroy, Susan Burdette, Lesley Harrison, Bruce Stewart, Gary Udd, and Thomas Jay!!! A huge thank you to Kris Brown for tossing retirement away to serve as interim principal at Holy Family !

And in blessed memory of Michael Bacigalupi .