

REDEEMING CONFLICT:

FRUITFUL WAYS TO MINISTER TOGETHER

A Retreat for Faith Formation Leaders,
Parish & School Administrators, and Youth Ministers

February 9-10, 2017

Archbishop Brunett Retreat Center at the Palisades Presenters: Dr. Ann Garrido and Fr. Scott Steinkerchner, OP

Conflict can be a blessing and a fruitful exchange that arises from living and working together in the diverse world God created. In this retreat, our presenters will offer practical habits for responding to conflict, pair each habit with a spiritual companion from history, and offer questions and prayers for growth.

Dr. Ann Garrido has a Doctorate of Ministry in Preaching from Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis, MO. Over the past two decades she has taught a range of courses in pastoral theology, homiletics, and catechetics while also serving in a variety of administrative positions including Director of Field Education, Director of Distance Learning, Director of the Aquinas Ministry Integration Project, Director of the Doctorate of Ministry program, and Director of the Masters in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.

Fr. Scott Steinkerchner, OP is a friar of the Central Province of the Order of Preachers. He holds a B.S. in Electrical Engineering from University of Akron, an M.A. in Theology and M.Div. from Aquinas Institute, St. Louis, Missouri, and a Ph.D. in Systematic Theology from Boston College. Fr. Scott is Associate Professor at Edgewood College, and has served as visiting professor of Inter-religious Theology at Aquinas Institute in St. Louis, Missouri. He is the Promoter General for the Internet for the Dominicans.

$160 Overnight Rate; $90 Commuter Rate
